United Way
of Hamblen County

Thank you for helping to make us a COMMUNITY UNITED last year!

Lakeway CASA advocated in the court system for 141 abused and neglected boys and girls so they could have a safe, loving home.

At MATS, 230 people spent 5,372 nights receiving a temporary shelter, food, clothing and other basic needs in a home-like atmosphere, as they try to better their lives.

Intensive outpatient programing for substance abuse was received by 201 individuals at Helen Ross McNabb Center.

CEASE Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault served 472 women and children through their 24-hour hotline, shelter and outreach programs.

Central Services provided almost 115,000 services ranging from utility, mortgage, and rent assistance, food pantry, traveler's aid, prescription medication and Christmas Toy Program.

Senior Citizens Home Assistance provided 20,038 hours of caregiving which included light housekeeping, cooking, laundry, grocery shopping and companionship.

Morristown Rescue Squad

Stepping Out provided life-skills education to 202 participants promoting behavior modification in areas such as parenting, anger management and automatic positive thinking.

Morristown-Hamblen Child Care Center provided 162 children with developmental care for low income parents who were working or attending school.

At the Helping Hands Clinic, there were 2,020 visits of patients with no health insurance who fall within the 200% federal poverty guidelines.
